NOTE

Subject: Validity Clause in the Crafts Instructor Certificate - reg.

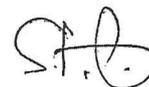

Sir,

Presently, the e-NCIC (National Craft Instructor certificate) is being issued to the candidates in which a validity clause is mentioned at the bottom of certificate stating that “ This certificate is valid for 05 years from date of issue and validity may be extended for next 05 years by attending DGT approved re-skilling courses.” This is w.e.f. the e-certificates issued to CITS trainees of Session 2018-19.

2. The matter was discussed in detail in the Standing Committee of Assessment held on 05th October, 2021, wherein, it was informed that the comments from the CSTARI & CD Section were also incorporated. The matter has been further deliberated vide F No. DGT-11012/06/2020-O/o DIR(CFIs) (All India Trade Test of Craft Instructor under CITS (Oct-Nov, 2020) (Computer No. 36126). It has been inferred in the file that the clause mentioned in Para 1 above be replaced with the following. “Instructor will have to attend DGT approved courses every 3 to 5 years as per decided and identified by DGT”.

3. Head -IT has desired that a communication / order be issued in this regard. Director (CFI) is of the opinion that the order may be issued from the TT Cell, DGT.

4. In view of the above, the Head IT may kindly bring the above change into immediate effect.
